

THE PICKENS SENTINEL

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

OFFICIAL PAPER OF PICKENS COUNTY

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

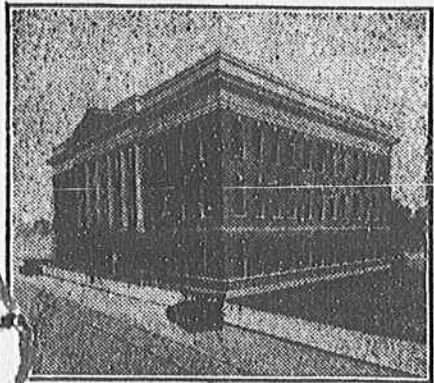

Established 1874—Volume 45

PICKENS, S. C., AUGUST 19, 1915

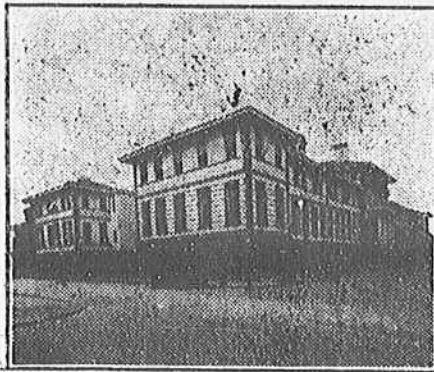

Number 15

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

Medical College of the State of South Carolina CHARLESTON, S. C.

COLLEGE BUILDING

ROPER HOSPITAL

Schools of Medicine & Pharmacy
Owned and Controlled by the State

Eighty-seventh session begins October 1, 1915—ends June 1, 1916. Fine new three-story building opposite Roper Hospital. Laboratories of Chemistry, Bacteriology, Anatomy, Physiology, Pharmacology and Pharmacy provided with new, modern equipment. The Roper Hospital, one of the largest and best equipped hospitals in the South, contains 218 beds, and with an extensive out-patient service, offers unsurpassed clinical advantages. Practical work in dispensary for pharmaceutical students. Two years graduated service in Roper hospital with six appointments each year. Department of Physiology and Embryology in affiliation with the Charleston Museum. Ten full-time teachers in laboratory branches. For catalog address:

OSCAR W. SCHLEETER,
Registrar,
Charleston, S. C.

Box 39

Miss Elinor Knight

Instructor in

Piano, Violin, Foundation Specialty

Affiliated With

Greenville Womans College

Miss Knight has adopted the "Progressive Series of Piano Lessons" in teaching and wishes to call attention to the many advantages of this authoritative text, having been edited by the world's greatest music teacher. Pupils taking this conservatory course and who wish to teach may get their Teacher's Certificate from the Greenville Womans College.

Littleton College

A WELL ESTABLISHED, well-equipped, and very prosperous school for girls and young women. Fall term begins September 22, 1915. For catalogue, address

J. M. RHODES, Littleton, N. C.

Do not watch the clock. You can't do it justice and keep your eye on the boss at the same time.

Resolutions of Respect

The following resolutions of respect to Sovereign Eugene F. Connelly were passed by Hickory Camp No. 439, W. O. W.:

On July 9, 1915, it was the pleasure of our heavenly father to take to himself Sovereign Eugene F. Connelly, who had been sick and patiently waited for a few weeks. Sovereign Connelly had lived out about half of his allotted time on earth of a good many years and ten. He was a model citizen, husband and father, and in consideration of these worthy traits of character and of the high esteem in which he was held by his brother sovereigns of the Woodmen of the World, be it

Resolved, 1. That in his days of work he was a bright jewel in woodmanship and the remembrance of him will be ever held in gratefulness; that our order was honored by the ties of membership of a man of such sterling integrity of character.

Resolved, 2. That we realize in part the great loss we have sustained through the death of one who was so kind, so good and so faithful in the performance of every duty.

Resolved, 3. That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family in this dark hour and bow with them in humble submission to Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, 4. That while we mourn the loss of our friend and brother, we cherish his memory in our hearts and we commit his spirit to God who gave it and his body to the dust from whence it came.

Resolved, 5. That a page in our record book be inscribed to his memory and that a copy of this tribute be furnished to the bereaved family, and that it be published in the county papers.

Signed: N. E. SMITH,
R. A. WILLIAMS,
C. H. STOREY,
Committee.

Miss Meda Boggs gave an informal reception last Thursday morning in honor of her house guests, Misses Annette Robertson, Myra Lou Cochran, and Erlene Cunningham. Miss Boggs had arranged two unique contests in which Miss Ella Hiott and Miss May McFall were the successful contestants. At the conclusion of this the guests were invited to accompany the hostess to the drug store, where cream was served.

To the churches of the Twelve Mile River Association: On account of the pastors being busy winding up their revival meetings, baptizing etc., the committee has decided to call off the union for the coming fifth Sunday. Churches will note same and govern yourselves accordingly. By order of committee.—R. P. Prince.

Pastor B. C. Atkinson is being assisted by his son, Rev. Charles Atkinson, in a revival meeting at Holly Springs church this week.

Norris News Items

Mrs. C. L. Mauldin and children of Seneca visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mauldin near Norris last week.

C. C. Burroughs, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. L. T. Shirley of Central, left last week for Asheville, where the former took his sister, Miss Hattie Burroughs, for treatment.

The many friends of Mr. John Cook regret to hear of his illness from typhoid fever.

Dock Hunter, one of our promising young men, was married Sunday, August 8, to Miss Inez Lumpkin, a popular young lady of the upper Mile Creek section of this county. The writer extends congratulations to this popular couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Gilstrap entertained friends at dinner Sunday.

Depot Agent and Mrs. Rhodes with their children are in Jefferson, Ga., this week visiting the latter's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Hill of Spencer, N. C., are visiting their parents near Easley. Next week they will be the guests of her sister, Mrs. James Whitten.

Miss Jesse Smith of Liberty was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary Hunter, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Arthurs will leave the first of September for Texas, where they will make their home.

Mrs. James Whitten and children will leave the latter part of this week for a visit to Easley, and from there will go to the mountains for a short stay.

Mrs. R. W. Smith has returned to her home in Oconee after spending a short while with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitmire of Jonesboro and Miss Myrtle Whitmire of Salem visited at the home of James Whitten last Friday.

The protracted meeting at the Baptist church came to a close last Friday with four additions to the church. Rev. Mr. Walker of Liberty conducted the meeting.

A bad accident happened to Tillman Littleton last week. He got his heel severely mashed while riding a motorcycle.

"Boss" Tollison of Georgia is now acting agent and operator during the absence of M. C. Rhodes.

Mrs. Mary Grant of Salem visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Nettie Holcombe of Fall Creek has returned home after spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Alexander.

Barney Williams is back home from a bicycle tour in the mountains.

Mrs. Dell Myers of Charleston is visiting relatives here and near Easley this week.

Mr. Isaac Sheriff and daughter, Miss Bertha, returned last week from a visit to Piedmont.

A series of meetings began Sunday at Golden Creek Baptist church. Rev. Mr. Stansell, ministerial student, will assist Rev. W. M. Walker during the meeting.

Dwelling Burned

Uncle Sam Loooper of the Cross Roads community had the misfortune of getting his dwelling with nearly everything in it destroyed by fire on the 10th inst. All the family were away from home when the fire broke out. It was perhaps set on fire by a match struck by a rat in the closet, where the fire seemed to have started, according to the statement of those who first discovered the fire. The neighbors are going to help in building another house and furnish it for this dear old man and his good wife, so that their last days may be spent in their own home. Everybody loves uncle Sam and Aunt Patsy.

Educational-Agricultural Rallies

An Educational and Agricultural rally will be held at Flat Rock Schoolhouse, near Carmel church, on August 26, near the old site of Thalian Academy, where the late John Kennedy taught for a number of years. The following speakers will be present and make addresses: Rev. J. C. Bailey, pastor of Carmel church.

W. W. Long, State Agent and Director of Extension.

Prof. Lueco Gunter, State Supervisor of Rural Schools.

Dr. E. M. Poteat, President of Furman University.

E. P. McCravy, Easley.

The public is invited to come and bring well-filled baskets and spend the day.

All of John L. Kennedy's old students specially invited.

A match game of baseball will be played on the grounds after the speaking is over.

An Educational and Agricultural rally will be held at Pleasant Hill church on August 27. The following speakers will be present and make addresses: W. W. Long, State Agent and Director of Extension.

Prof. Lueco Gunter, State Supervisor of Rural Schools.

Dr. J. G. Clinkscales, Professor of Mathematics of Wofford College.

The public is invited to come and bring well-filled baskets and spend the day.

Church Institute at Old Pickens

Below is the program for the church institute that will be held at Old Pickens Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, Aug. 23, 24 and 25:

Rev. I. E. Wallace will preach Sunday night, August 22.

Monday, Aug. 23, 10 a. m.—Demonstration in milk separating and testing, Prof. J. M. Burgess, Clemson College.

11 a. m.—sermon, Rev. W. H. Mills, Clemson College.

2 p. m.—Address on practical dairying, Prof. J. M. Burgess.

8 p. m.—Sermon, Rev. W. H. Mills.

Tuesday, Aug. 24, 10 a. m.—Keeping poultry for pay, Prof. Frank C. Hare, Clemson College.

11 a. m.—Sermon, Rev. W. H. Mills.

2 p. m.—The care and management of poultry, Prof. Frank C. Hare.

8 p. m.—An illustrated address, "Our Nation's Foundation," Mr. R. E. Grabel of the Southern railway's agricultural department.

Wednesday, August 25, 10 a. m.—The production and care of fruits, Prof. C. F. Neven, Clemson College.

11 a. m.—Sermon, Rev. W. H. Mills.

2 p. m.—The production and care of vegetables, Prof. Neven.

Prof. Neven will also give a demonstration this day in the canning of fruit and vegetables in tin.

Everyone in reach is cordially invited to attend these meetings. Dinner will be served on the ground for the three days.

Leo M. Frank Lynched

A mob variously estimated at 25 to 75 men Monday night overpowered the guards at the Georgia state prison at Milledgeville, Ga., and took Leo M. Frank from the prison. Early Tuesday morning Frank's dead body was found hanging to a tree almost one hundred miles from Milledgeville and almost within sight of the former home of Mary Phagan, the little girl for whose death Frank had been convicted.

Frank's body was not shot or mutilated. He was barefooted and clothed only in prison trousers. The body was left hanging for several hours after it was found and thousands of people came to view it. The body was taken to Atlanta and prepared for burial and left on the midnight train for Brooklyn, N. Y., where Frank's people live.

See The Sentinel for Printing

See The Sentinel for Printing

Death of Hon. Laban Mauldin

Hon. Laban Mauldin died at his home in Easley on the 10th instant in the 74th year of his life. His funeral was conducted by his former pastor, Rev. D. W. Hiott, in the absence of his pastor, the day following his death; then the Masons buried his body in West View cemetery by the side of his wife, who preceded him to the grave just one year and four days.

Mr. Mauldin was married to Miss Mary Rogers January 11, 1866. Having no children of their own, they helped in raising others. Mrs. Holler Evatt and Mrs. Charlie Thomas, both of Easley, were almost like their own children. Mr. Mauldin was an earnest Christian. He served as deacon of Enon church, where he was baptized by Rev. John Atrial. At the time of his death he was a member and deacon of the First Baptist church of Easley. He had served as moderator of the Piedmont association for many years. He was also a trustee of the Connie Maxwell orphanage and his will provides that most of his property shall go to the orphanage. Mr. Mauldin had served this county as school commissioner and had represented the county in the legislature. In every public trust he was faithful. He leaves three brothers—Vardey Mauldin of Birmingham, Ala., Atrial Mauldin of Atlanta, Ga., and Henry Mauldin of Lavonia, Ga., and one brother-in-law, Francis Roper, of this county.

Hogwallow, Oconee Co., News

Sidney Hocks, who has been writing to Miss Flutie Belcher, has demanded a definite answer to the last note he sent her, and if he does not get it he will join the army.

Atlas Peck has had his old buggy painted to try to make it look like a new one, but it still rattles.

Yam Sims has gone to work with a wheat thresher during the social season.

Poke Easley has bought a two acre farm adjoining the Tickville railroad, and believes this is ground for a damage suit.

Slim Pickens called on Miss Rosy Moseley Sunday night. She has been waiting for him to come for some time.

Ellick Hellwanger went to the Postoffice Thursday and filed with the Postmaster an application for a money order.

A chicken mite is a small thing that can hardly be seen and never heard. Still a giant can feel its footsteps.

The Widow of the Calf Ribs neighborhood has installed a sofa pillow and a stereoscope in her parlor.

The Horse Doctor has enlarged his saddle pockets and is now prepared to execute all calls with promptness and despatch.

The rural policeman is planning to make an important arrest as soon as he can find a suitable person.

Flim Dillard motored to Bounding Billows Saturday on his bicycle.

Miss Gondola Henstep was hostess at an enjoyable social gathering at her home on the Rye Straw road last Monday night. She invited only those of her friends that she liked.

Tobe Moseley drove his yoke of steers to the Hog Ford still house Tuesday, and while coming back overlooked an automobile.

A man may feel almost absolutely certain that he has a surplus of certain things that come and go in life, but he never knows how many more birthdays he has on hand.

Sid Hocks reports that he saw several cakes of ice while in Tickville one day this week. He stood at a distance while inspecting it as he did not have his ear muffs with him.

Tobe Moseley went to the far end of Musket Ridge Friday to attend the funeral of a distant relative.

Tobe Moseley says do what the doctor tells you, then if you die the blame will all be on the doctor.

Missionary Society Meeting

Following is the program of sixth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary society, which is to be held with the Griffin Baptist church, Thursday, August 19:

10 o'clock—Praise service, Mrs. J. M. Stewart.

Words of welcome, Mrs. Jesse Childs; response, Mrs. J. D. Stansell; roll call of societies with reports; distribution of apportionment cards.

South Carolina's place in the Southern union, Miss Verna Foster; Miss Heck's message and report of nominating committee, S. B. C., Mrs. C. E. Robinson; noonday quiet hour, Mrs. C. E. Watson; election of nominating committee; appointment of committee; prayer; dinner.

Devotional, Miss Naomi Robinson; how can we get the young people interested in missions? Missionary address, Mrs. Entzinger; plans for the coming year, Mrs. C. E. Watson; report of nominating committee; election of officers; report of committee on time and place; appointment of standing committees; benediction.

Thursday evening at 8.30 there will be a temperance address made by Rev. D. W. Hiott and one on missions by J. T. Taylor.

Mt. Carmel Locals

The Mt. Carmel school opened again with several new scholars, after a vacation of a week for the series of meeting which was carried on by Rev. Mann.

Miss Daisy Philpot of Central has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Latham, and Mrs. Thomas. She is now visiting at Traveler's Rest.

Ambrose Bowen of Georgia is visiting friends and relatives in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Robinson of Dacusville have been visiting his mother at Marietta.

Mrs. G. O. Jones of Easley route, 5 spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Jones of this section.

Miss Addie Anthony and friend Miss Willard, of Greenville, visited Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Latham last Thursday.

The barn of Will Corbin of the Cross Roads section was burned August 7. It was discovered during the night by the groaning of a cow which perished in the flames.

T. M. Jones and family spent Saturday with relatives in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Hunt and children worshipped at Griffin church last Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Hunt's mother, Mrs. Hendricks.

Miss Mamie Looper spent several days last week with her cousin Miss Eva Christopher in Pickens.

Miss Margaret Jameson of Easley has been spending several days in the Dacusville section with friends and relatives.

The township singing convention will convene with Peters' Creek church the first Sunday in September. It was postponed from August on account of a sad death in that vicinity.

A party was enjoyed at the home of Miss Eva Holcombe last Friday evening. The younger members of the C. C. club, with their brothers and the teachers at Vineland and Mt. Carmel were invited. Several games of rook were played and refreshments were served.

Olar McGarity of near Chester was the guest last week of his college mate, E. T. Holcombe, of this place.

Claud Atrial and his wife and little child, with Miss Bessie Atrial and Mrs. Smith's sisters, and his mother, Mrs. Atrial, widow of the late Bob Atrial, who moved to Alabama some six years ago, are now visiting friends and relatives in this section. Their home is in Wellington, Ala.

The concert of the W. L. Nation's school will be given next Saturday evening at Camp Creek church. Everybody is invited to come.